

(RE)APPROACHING ROMAN FRUGALITY

An Interdisciplinary Workshop

Cambridge, Faculty of Classics
9-10 January 2014

Cambridge, Faculty of Classics

Room 1.04

THURSDAY 9 JANUARY 2014

Chair: Robin Osborne (University of Cambridge)

2:00pm Cristiano VIGLIETTI (University of Cambridge): Introduction: “Hoc plus ne facito. Re-defining ‘Roman frugality’ in the cultural transition from Monarchy to Republic”

2:45 Gabriele CIFANI (University of Rome 2): “Frugality and luxury in early Roman society”

3:30-4:00pm Coffee break

4:00pm John RICH (University of Nottingham): “Roman frugality and the limitation of landholding”

4:45 Stefano FERRUCCI (University of Siena 1): “Frugality and (in)dependency. Greek models for ancient Roman frugality”

FRIDAY 10 JANUARY 2014

Chair: Peter Garnsey (University of Cambridge)

9:15am Laure PASSET (University of Lyons 2): “Frugality, a political language in the 2nd century BCE: Cato the Elder and Scipio Aemilianus’s strategies”

10:00 Nicholas PURCELL (University of Oxford): “Vende animam lucro: the pros and cons of abstaining from the market in Roman thought”

10:45-11:15am Coffee break

11:15am Neville MORLEY (University of Bristol): “Frugalitas as ideology in Varro’s Rerum Rusticarum”

12:00 Ingo GILDENHARD (University of Cambridge): “Frugalitas in Cicero”

12:45-2:00pm Buffet lunch

Chair: John Patterson (University of Cambridge)

2:00pm Rebecca FLEMMING (University of Cambridge): “Frugality and fertility”

2:45 Alessandro LAUNARO (University of Cambridge): “Roman frugality in the Age of Conquest and Empire? The view from the Italian countryside”

3:30-4:00pm Coffee break

4:00pm Andrew WALLACE-HADRILL (University of Cambridge):
“Roman frugality and the Protestant work ethic”

4:45 Jérôme MAUCOURANT (University of St. Etienne, ENS-Lyons): “Neo-institutionalism & scarcity: ingredients for a reflection”

5:30-6:00pm Discussion and conclusion

Moderator: Luigi Capogrossi Colognesi (University of Rome 1)

Cover: Pierre Peyron, Curius Dentatus refusant les présents des ambassadeurs samnites, Oil on canvas, 1787. Avignon, Musée Calvet.